About Us

Altunpar Automotive Spare Parts established in 1978 San. Ltd. Şti started to provide service to the Automotive Industry as a supplier of spare parts after trucks in Europe, such as TIR and other brands. After a while, the company opened a new workshop and started to manufacture these spare parts under the name of ALTPARTS in 1990 with my own ideas. Altunpar Automotive has gradually developed in this sector and has become a demand brand in the Turkish market. The company now aims to expand its product range and provide products all over Europe and the East.. For the purpose of serving the Automotive Industry in both domestic and foreign markets; The company introduced its name and quality products to the foreign market through Automotive Fairs held in Europe, Africa, the Middle East and
