

About Us

As Barsan Global Logistics, we have been confidently moving forward to become an international brand since the first day of our establishment. While we perform all logistics services at the speed of thought with our international organizational structure, technological infrastructure, experience and strength, we also establish our communication strategy on the same platform. We believe in the necessity of being a brand in order to be the industry leader within national borders and to carry it to the international arena.

Products

Product customs clearance

gtip 000000

