

About Us

Our group has a long history of operating in different sectors from agriculture to automotive for nearly 40 years. During this period, we acted on the basis of trust before profit. In all the commercial activities we take part in, the principles have been established and we have acted without making any concessions. All the gains regarding the trust and experience gained have been carefully focused on transferring them to the next generations.

Company Officials

Kemal Çimen
Company Owner

Products

