Hakkımızda

The foundations of Kentpar Automotive were laid in a small lathe workshop in Konya in 1971 under the name of Kent Automotive. The company initially manufactured the automotive spare parts needed by domestic wholesalers. The company, which entered the Institutionalization and Development process since 2006, changed its name to Kentpar Otomotiv Makine Sanayi Tic. Ltd. Sti. and started exporting to Europe in 2007. Kentpar Automotive, which exhibits an expert management and production approach, has always given great importance to quality in its facility that is suitable for the conditions of the day. Our company, which has been working in accordance with the ISO 9001 quality system since 2005, is
