About Us

Köyşehir Meat Integrated Plant was established within the body of Akplas company and started production in April 2017 with the principle of bringing the village naturalness to the city. Aiming to offer the best quality meat with the most reliable service, Köyşehir has taken the right steps to achieve a successful line in its sector in a short time. In this direction, it has adopted the principles of halal slaughter, halal trade and the most hygienic meat production. Meat obtained by purchasing cattle and sheep and goats, which are carefully raised in natural environments in villages, from village producers, is safely delivered to the table. Because human health, especially animal health, is given importance.
