About Us

using our resources rationally, creating unlimited customer satisfaction, being able to move quickly to continuous structures, changing practices, being transparent and honest in all our relations, and behaving with environmental awareness.

The rapid changes and developments in the global market have been reflected in the service features and the expectations of perfection in production have revealed the concept of "zero defect". As Öztürk Innovation, our main goal in quality is to ensure quality management in all our products. We are trying to structure our production and management systems by using "Lean Manufacturing" and "Rational engineering model" together.
