Hakkımızda

Serin Treyler, which has a long history of production, started to produce trailer production in 1980s. The robustness of the model it developed, and the axles that have been used for miles of unreasonable use, are preferred in the domestic market, but also become a product exported to Middle Eastern countries. Serin, which produced its first trailer in the container carrier model in 1983, has reached today thanks to the good relations it has established with the customers. Serin, giving great importance to customer expectations in constant change and development kept itself fit and aimed at stable growth. As a natural course of this, machinery park and factory areas have grown continuously over the years and continued to increase the employment capacity provided to the sector.
